

Stay connected

Become a member of the Hohenheim Alumni Network and stay in touch with your alma mater.

Hohenheim has been writing history since 1818, which would not be possible without its lecturers and students, visionaries and pioneers. There are now more than 16,000 alumni who represent the University of Hohenheim as ambassadors all over the world.

As a member of the Alumni Network, you remain a part of the university and, with your commitment, help to ensure that the offered activities remain engaging and varied.
